PROBABLE CAUSE IN SUPPORT OF ARREST WARRANT

On February 21, 2023, at 1241 hours, Newport News Police Department (NNPD) Officer Ruhlen was entering the Patriots Crossing apartment complex, in the 400 block of Manor Road, Newport News, Virginia when she was flagged down by a male later identified as D.M. D.M. was driving a black Chrysler vehicle that had two gunshot holes in the windshield along with a shattered passenger front side window. D.M. stated he was, selling marijuana to an individual, later identified as BEAL, who robbed D.M. of the marijuana and subsequently shot D.M. in the left femur area. BEAL then fled towards the back of the complex, located at 448 Manor Road, Newport News, VA. Medics transported D.M. to the hospital with a non-life-threatening gunshot wound.

Law enforcement were able to obtain information about who lived in the apartment complex of 448 Manor Road through speaking with the property manager. A possible suspect was identified as living in specific apartment number hereafter referred to as “#X”.

Officer Ruhlen notified Detective DeLuca that D.M. told Officer Ruhlen the suspect had a black, .40 Caliber handgun. D.M. told Officer Ruhlen the suspect was a light-skinned, black male wearing a black hoodie, dark pants, with a ponytail. While at the hospital, D.M. told law enforcement that D.M. communicated with the suspect regarding the sale of narcotics and has been doing so for several months. Law enforcement obtained consent to download the contents of D.M.’s cellphone, which revealed text messages between “bjbeal27@icloud.com” and the victim, D.M. There were several text messages between the suspect and D.M. regarding the purchase of a quantity of marijuana leading up to the shooting on February 21, 2023.

Law enforcement was able to watch video footage of the apartment complex parking lot, which showed the black Chrysler driven by D.M., pull in front of 448 Manor Road. A suspect was seen wearing a light-colored jacket with a dark colored backpack, along with dark colored jeans and shoes waiting outside the apartment. The suspect attempts to get into the D.M.'s driver side door but walks back to the passenger side door. The suspect opens the passenger side, reaches in, and a few seconds later, the suspect shoots several times at the vehicle as the suspect runs away. The black Chrysler then drives out of the parking lot. The suspect is seen running towards the back of 448 Manor Road.

Upon arrival to the scene at 448 Manor Road a crime scene was established by law enforcement. Nobody entered or left apartment #X. Officers attempted to speak to the leaseholder of the residence, but she would not allow anyone to enter the apartment. BEAL eventually walked out of apartment #X wearing the same pants and shoes seen in the video by law enforcement and was detained. A photo of BEAL was shown to the victim, D.M., who positively identified BEAL as the one who shot him.

A search warrant was obtained for 448 Manor Road, Apartment #X, Newport News, VA, where the following items of evidence were recovered:
